

Depressed going home every night thinking he is average with not much money to his name or a partner because of the lack of time management and alarms that would make him prioritize the stuff that would make him better

Starts searching for ways to fix his life and finds BeOnTime and downloads it and starts trying to navigate

Finds it really easy to link everything and put his life on track to manage his day so starts to list his days on the app and linking his calendar, clock, email, and messages to the app

Smirking as his life gets on track gets a new office job after using BeOnTime to manage his daily and work and sleep and prioritize his list of things to have time for fun and have more money

Starts enjoying his life and feeling way more successful as he realizes how much time in the day he has to focus on his health and fun as he organizes his life with BeOnTime

Get a Gf and feels content with life as he accomplished and managed time an everything he wanted after discovering and downloading BeOnTime and using it to better his life

Sawyer forgets a task

Sawyer downloads BeOnTime

Our app reminds Sawyer to do his stuff

Sawyer is a productive member of society

I go to bed at 12:00 AM every night

When my alarm goes off in the morning I hit snooze and don't get out of bed

My job is wondering where I am

When I finally wake up (10 AM) I am late for work

My boss is mad at me on the construction site

I download the BeOnTime app to never be late again!!!
